The trime of 1873.

The editor of the Evening News is not partisan enough probably for many of its readers, but he believes in giving facts when it is in his power to do so. Some of the red hot partisans lately made a kick because he did not say there were a thousand people in the torchlight procession, which they claimed there were. but instead used the count he himrelf made to the apparent disgust of the aforesaid partisans.

It is impossible for the editor of a paper to youch for all the information be obtains, but there is one thing quite certain we do not, and hope we never shall. allow our respect for the truth to be overrun by partison feeling, sufficiently to publish as truths what we know to be false. We have read a great deal about the silverites claim was committed on the siy and the bill smuggled through the house and senate without any discussion. This as we understand it was certainly not the case, as the question was, we be lieve, under consideration for fully three years and during that time was often discussed in both the house and senate. We cannot verify, not having the congressionalrecord for the years mentioned, the following statement which lately appeared in the Brooklyn Standard Union, but from our reading elsewhere we believe the statement to be true, and, if it is, the cry of the silverites, that the bill was smuggled through the house and senate by the aid of the agent of Windmill Prout's "man on horseback," who, by the way we understand, was not in the country at the time of its passing, must fall to the ground.

The following gives the record of the bill according to the statement above re-

Boston & Montana.

In view of the recent fluctuations in price of stock of the Boston & Montana Consolidated Copper and Silver Mining Co. and the large number of shares sold. the holders of the stock in Great Falls and others will be interested in some figures at hand concerning the quotations in years past. The par value per share is $25. Since January 1, 1896, the range has been from $65, January 7, to $91,50. June 15. The lowest quotation ever made was $15, July 18, 1893; the highest, $99 50, July 30, 1895. Prior to the rection of the works at Great Falls, the quotation never went above $75, which it reached in 1889, soon after the anacuncement of the contemplated improvements at Great Falls -- Great Falls Tri-

New Millia Company.

It has been decided by the militia authorities at the State beadquarters to have the new militia company, which will fill the place of the company which was formerly stationed at Marquette, ocated at Sault Ste. Marie, and the new company will be mustered into the State ervice within the next week or two. The new compay will be Company G. Sault Ste. Marie was picked out on account of its geographical position on the Peninula, as it is desired to have the different companies pretty well scattered over the district covered by the Fifth Infantry.

Colonel Lyon left yesterday noon for sault Ste. Marie, as it was intended, to muster in the new company this evening, but he received a telegram from Inspector General Joseph G. Walsh when he got to Houghton, stating that he would be unable to attend and the Colonel returned latter in the day. General Walsh is a candidate for prosecuting attorney in his county and will probably not be able to get up to the Soo until after election.

"Uncle Tom's Cabin."

This famous old play wid again be presented in as new and attractive a form as modern thought and stage invention ili permit, and doubtless, notwithstanding its age, the attraction Friday evening next will do a profitable business. The cast will include the famous actresses the Cook Twin Sisters, who will be seen as the two Topsies, while Herbert Church, a popular colored actor, will play Uncle Tom, and the remainder of the unusually arge cast may be considered a compe tent one. Some twenty ponies and burrows, a large number of colored plantation jablice singers, a pack of Siperian bloodbounds and an unusually gorgeous transformation scene, necessitating the utilizing in its unfolding of nine distinct drop scenes, will be some of the features that will greet the eye in the Red Jacket Opera House, October 23. Secure your seats in advance.

Another Stiver Rally.

The silverites will hold forth again at the Opera House this evening, when Hon. H. W. Seymour, of Sault Ste. Marie, candidate for congress for this, the twelfth district, and opponent of Hon. Carlos D. Shelden, of Houghton, will speak on the issues of the present campaign. Hon. G. R. Glidden, of Detroit. will also make an address. The former was formerly a republican, but a free silverite and when the democratic party nominated Bryan became out for him.

The silverites will follow this rally with nother on Thursday night, when Rev. Flavins J. Brobst, of Chicago, a silver republican, will speak at the Opera House.

McKinley Wins by 17 Votes. The staw ballot at Berryman & Henderson's Bon Ton barber shop was closed last evening and the votes counted by an election commission, consisting of Messrs. James Ramsay and John S. Dymock. The republican candidates, Me-Kinley and Hobart, received 59 votes, while the si ver orator, W. J. Bryan, was close behind with 39. The prohibition o-called "crime of 1873" and which the candidate Levering, received two votes. Ninety-seven votes in all were cast.

The McKinley people claim a larger plurality than that, by a long ways, in two weeks from now.

The Musical Miller.

A service of song entitled "The Musical Miller" from "The Man With a Knapsack," will be given at the Tamarack M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, October 25. It is the story of a man who would be always happy, and the songs he sang.

The pastor of the church will read the story and the music will be furnished by s special chorus choir from the Sunday chool. A special collection will be taken to aid the funds of the Sunday school. Services at 6:30. All are cordially invit d.

There was a big attendance at the Armory last evening and chances on almost everything, from a complete parlor suite to a fancy doll, were disposed of. A band rendered a special program during the evening. A special musical program, including a soprano solo by Miss Lilian Basken and a tenor solo by Mr. J. C. Abdill, will be rendered this evening.

Miss Tarbell, in the November McClure's will tell the story (a most dramatic story by the way) of Lincoln's nomination in 1860, drawing largely on the personal recolle-tions of the men who were so instrumental in securing the nomination. The paper will be fully illustrated.

Tamarack Check Lost. All persons are warned against change ng check No. 8668E, drawn by the Tamarack company, signed, J. T. Reeder, in favor of John H. Stemich for $45.55. The finder will please return to the News office.

The carpenters have about completed their work on Colonel F. B. Lyon's new residence in Calumet and the house is being plastered. Contractor Bray did a pretty swift job on the boose, having commenced work on the first of the month.

The pay for services at camp for the regimental field and staff officers was received at regimental beadquarters Saturday and forwarded to the different offizers. The pay for the band men war also turned over at the same time.

RIGHT OF CONTRACT.

TO BE ABRIDGED BY BRYAN AND HIS

Attempt to Make Illegal Contracts Payable In Gold an Attack Upon Freedom of Contract-Would Hamper Busines and Commerce and Compel a Resort to Autique Methods of Barter.

The Cordage Trade Journal of Oct. 1 discusses a part of the Chicago platform which has not thus far received the attention which it morits-that thich proposes to take away the right of private contract. The Journal says that "no industry of any size can exist without the use of contracts, agreements for the purchase, sale, delivery of and payment for goods. It is hardly neces-sary to point out what this means in the cordage business."

It then explains how rope manufacturers make contracts with brokers, and brokers with foreign growers of manilla or sisal, for their raw materials. Having made these contracts, they are in a position to make contracts with large jobbers and rope dealers. Continuing,

The Journal says: "Contracts are necessary to the succossful transaction of business upon any scale above that of the very small retail rade, where goods and money pass be tween buyer and seller simultaneously. Mr. Bryan would, if president, give his approval to laws which would prohibit ess men from specifying what they shall sell goods for or what they shall pay for goods, thus seriously restricting the right of contract. His first nomination-in Chicago-was based upon his acceptance of a platform which contained the following plank:

"We demand that the standard sliver dollar shall be a full legal tender, equally with gold, for all debts, public and private, and we favor such legislation as will prevent for the future the demonstration of any kind of legal tender sey by private contract

"His Populistic nomination in St. Louis carried with it this plank: "We demand such legislation as will prevent he demonstration of the lawful money of the United States by private contract.

"Possibly the United States supreme court will uphold such legislation-it sustained the validity of the legal ten-der act—and—what? Mr. Bryan does not tell the people whom he addresses tridaily. When he gets near the sub ject, it is only to say something like

"When any one tries to give you an object lesson with a Mexican dollar, tell him that the Mexican dollar is not legal tender in this coun-try, and that our silver dollar is, and under free coinage will continue to be, and no one will be allowed to contract against it.—W. J. Bryan in Newark, Sept. 28.

"This not only shows the purpose of the man, but also gives an intelligent man a very clear conception of Mr. Bryan's skill as a logician. If he knew anything at all about commerce—the lifeblood of which he so glibly talks of interfering with-he would know that the execution of his plan would cause an instant cessation of commercial activity, which would be followed by a resumption upon a restricted and antique basis. Methods which the commercial world discarded generations ago would have to be brought into use for carrying on business under the conditions which the adoption of Mr. Bryan's two absurd propositions would impose

"Where would the hemp come from for next year's binder twine to tie the farmers' wheat? The United States, where silver dollars worth less than 100 cents would be legal tender, could not furnish the material. All prices now quoted are for gold. No matter how much farmers wanted twine, when it was no longer possible to make a contract to pay gold or its equivalent for hemp, they would have to go without it until some cumbersome method of barlaw. Of course, in time the hemp would be secured and the farmers supplied, but the new way of doing business would be more costly. In the end the consumer pays all costs. Hence the farmers would have to submit to higher prices for binder twine, as for every thing else they buy. And yet Mr. Bryan claims to be the particular friend of agriculturists! "It is to be hoped that the business men of the country will carefully consider what the proposed interference with the right to enter into a contrac to pay any kind of money would result in and then vote for a candidate for president who will preserve the freedom

If 50 cent silver dollars should double the prices of farm products, it is quite as certain that the prices of all the products which the farmer consumes would double in the same way. In tha case it is not easy to see how the farmer would gain anything by the free coinage of silver. Even the wages of labor, the last to rise in an epoch of depreciated currency and inflated prices, would finally, after much distress of the workingmen, straggle up to the common

But whether the farmer should re-ceive $100 for 100 bushels of wheat and pay out $90 for the necessaries of living or should receive $200 for the same wheat and pay out $180, in both cases the balance on hand would have just the same purchasing power. But in accomplishing the degradation of the monetary standard, which could do neither the farmer nor the wage carner any good, an enormous depreciation of values and confiscation of accumulated sarnings, involving public and private credit in a maelstrom of destruc would inevitably ensue. Are the farm ers and workingmen of the country willing to invoke such a catastrophe?-Philadelphia Record.

There has been no time since the re sumption of specie payments in 1879 when the depositors in savings banks could not get back as good money as they earned and put in. Do they want even to "chance it" on getting 51 cent or even 75 cent silver dollars?

"Dr. E. L. Robertson, of Lansing, was in town several days during the week, registering at the Boyinton House. Dr. Robertson is a specialist on all chronic diseases, and on several occasions has treated a number of our citizens, among those so treated being Mrs. B. Mestelle, who informs us that eight or nine years ago she was badly run down with a very complicated case; which with a severe cough, led many of her friends to believe that she was going into consumption. She grew very weak, and at times was unable to attend to her household duties. She was induced to call on Dr. Robertson, who was then on his first visit from Iron River, who prescribed for her. After carefully using his medicine for several months she was completely cured, and is today a stronger and healthier woman than for many years previous to taking Dr. Robertson's remedies. Mrs. Mestelle feels perfectly free in recommending the use of Dr. Robertson's medicines to any of her friends who are suffering from any chronic or aggravated case."—Iron River Reporter.

Dr. Robertson can be consulted at [the Taylor House.

Dr. E. L. Robertson, the noted specialist on chronic diseases, from our State capital, Lansing, who has had a marvelous experience and success in the medical profession, covering a period of over twenty-five years, assisted by the noted lady physician and specialist in chronic female diseases, Dr. E. D. Hazen, can be consulted every evening from 6 to 9 p. m. Consultation free. Examinations of ladies are conducted by Mrs. Dr. Hazen, which makes it a pleasure instead of a dread for those suffering from disease peculiar to her sex. Dr. E. L. Robertson's long and careful study, coupled by ong years of experience and an enormous practice in chronic diseases, have earned a reputation which is truly enviable and above reproach. He cures the most obstinate cases of the following complaints with ease: Stomach diseases, such as dyspepsia, ulceration, catarrh, bloating, pain r fullness after eating and any form of indigestion, liver, chronic con-tipation, piles and all forms of rectal troubles resulting from diseases of liver, spleen and bowels. The loathsome and dreadful disease catarrh in its most obstinate form. Kidney and bladder trouble, nervous debility and prostration, rheumatism, eczema and salt rheum, diseases peculiar to women, inflammation, si k headache, pain in back and loins, spinal weakness, bloating, discharges, smarting, burning, itching can postively be cured. Also diseases peculiar to man, all disorders of the blood, disease of the spinsl nerve affecting the optic nerve, also chronic inflammation and granulation of the eyelids and deafness, asthma and chronic bronchitis. The doctors will be pleased to give any information to parties wishing their services.
